EXPERIENCE

Coocon Front-End Developer
I developed a web application form scratch using AngularJS while integrating this with the existent Ruby on Rails back-end. I worked closely with clients in Agile fashion using the SCRUM method.

Dielle Full-Stack Developer
I designed and developed a project management software to track and analyze employees working hour activities. The application was built from scratch using the latest Angular2 framework supported by a C# backend-end with a series of RESTful web services built wth the ASP.NET Web API framework.

SKILLS
